

FOREWORD FROM THE EDITORS

JESÚS M. NIETO GARCÍA, GENERAL EDITOR
Universidad de Jaén

BEATRIZ VALVERDE JIMÉNEZ, MANAGING EDITOR
Universidad de Jaén

We are here presenting the last number of Atlantis under the current editing team's management. We hope that both this issue and the previous ones have been interesting and thought-provoking to their readers. I can say that we have done our best to present a final result, after the selection, initial editing and final printing process of more than sixty different texts, which reflect the authors' deep academic knowledge and many hours of work. We give our thanks, firstly, both to them and to the readers; without them, the journal would simply not exist. We also want to thank Ronnie Lendrum, Miguel Moro and the technical staff of Compobell; we are sure that, also without them, the journal would not have the quality it has. Finally, on a more personal note, as the general editor of Atlantis, I want to thank Yolanda, Pepe, Xavi and Bea; they have been a wonderful team that I have felt honoured and thankful to coordinate.